Matt Davis Joins TAC Air as Director of Business Development Focus Will Be On National Accounts and Expansion Opportunities

TEXARKANA, TX May 5, 2011 – TAC Air, a division of Truman Arnold Companies, announces the addition of Matt Davis as Director of Business Development.

Davis will focus on TAC Air network expansion and acquisition opportunities, new product/services development and assist with base operations. “We are excited to have the combination of aviation experience and fresh ideas Matt brings to the table. His background and enthusiasm for expansion plus operations experience offer a tremendous asset for us as we continue to pursue new business opportunities” said Greg Arnold, President and CEO of Truman Arnold Companies.

Prior to joining TAC Air, Davis was Vice President of Aviation Marketing for Flightaware. He has a wealth of experience in the aviation industry including FBO general manager, sales & marketing manager and various operational roles. A multi-engine commercially rated pilot, Davis holds a Bachelor of Science in Communication Studies and Master of Business Administration from the University of Texas at Austin.
